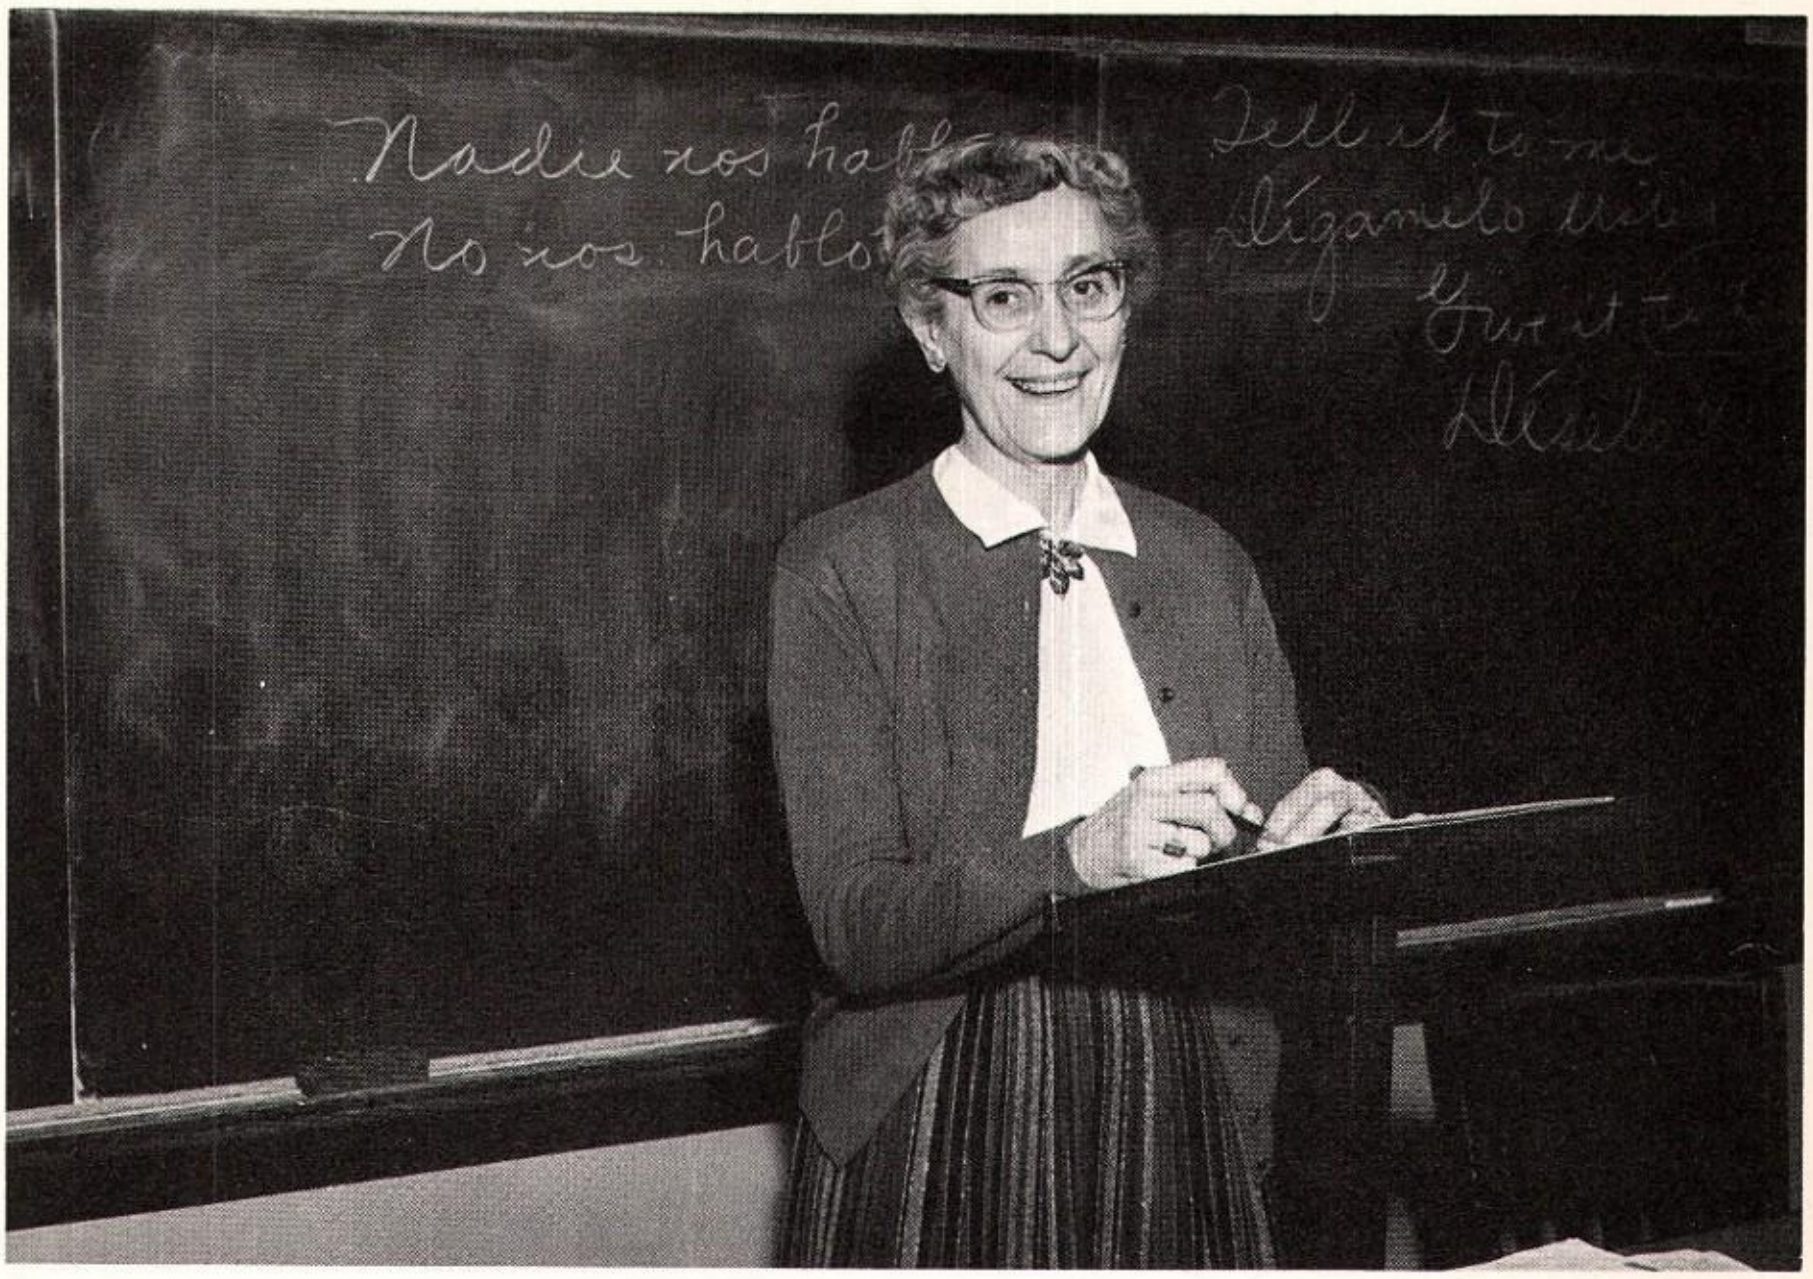
Dedication



With a great deal of pride, the publication staff takes this opportunity to announce the dedication of this year's annual to Mrs. Olga Hicks.

Since her arrival at our school in 1920, Mrs. Hicks has been teaching English and languages. Prior to this, she spent two years teaching in Hastings, Michigan.

A resident of Albion almost all her life, she attended Albion College and graduated with highest honors in 1918. She continued to work on her Master's degree at the University of Michigan and completed this work at Albion.

Her services as an advisor have been greatly appreciated by the French and Spanish clubs and by former senior classes.

Mrs. Hicks is an active member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority, Eastern Star, and Western Service Guild. She greatly enjoys knitting, sewing, reading, athletics, and has a great knowledge of music.

Mrs. Hicks is the type of person whom one might term as a "teacher's teacher." She is not only highly respected by the student body but by her fellow teachers as well. Her years of service have been greatly appreciated and, because of this, we dedicate the 1959 annual to you, Mrs. Hicks.

CLASS SONG

The time has come
To say farewell
To all our friends
And teachers swell

Our memories
Will never fade
As we leave behind
The marks we've made

As we go our way
Our hearts grow sad
But in the future lies
Things to make us glad

So farewell old Albion High
Our dear friend
The time has come
To say good-bye

Junior Class Officers

This year's class officers were: Bill Krueger, president; Marlene Arnold, vice-president; Marsha Young, secretary; George Martin, treasurer, and John Hagemann, sergeant-at-arms. Advising the class were Mr. Kenneth Higgins and Mr. Roger Magnuson.

The class rings were received late in September. The juniors sponsored several fund raising projects during the year. Many juniors participated in the Junior Exhibition, April 9-10, at which time the winner of the essay contest was announced.

The Sophomore class officers this year were president, Bill Holland; vice-president, Lynn Court; secretary, Sue Zimmerman; treasurer, Ruth Mary Baldwin, and sergeant-at-arms, Jim Johnson.

The sophomores were in charge of the concessions and the after-game dance at the Albion vs. Three Rivers basketball game. In the spring they placed the order for their class rings which they will receive in the fall.

Advising the class of '61 were Miss Valerie Radee and Mr. Richard Fulkerson.

Freshmen Class Officers

Achievement Day marked the graduation of the ninth graders from Junior High. At this time trophies were awarded to the boy and girl of the class who possessed outstanding citizenship qualities. Recognition was given other members for their various achievements in school activities.

Among the other activities of the Freshman class was the annual class party which was held in April.

The class was headed this year by president, Larry Arnold; vice-president, Catherine Cascarelli; secretary, Sue Ann McAuliffe; treasurer, Sheri Gaertner, and sergeant-at-arms, Jeannie Halstead.

Their advisors were Mr. Ellsworth Anderson, Mrs. Evelyn Swenson, and Mrs. Jean Fennimore.

Eighth Grade Class Officers

Heading the eighth grade class this year was president, Sam Trippett. Working under him were vice-president, Isidro Garcia; secretary, Charlene Vaughn; and treasurer, Charles Weeks.

This year's activities included collecting money for CARE at Christmas, holding the annual eighth grade party on February 27, and participating in the yearly story telling contest for which awards were given.

Advising the officers and the class in general were Miss Iva Fleming and Mr. Ordell McElhaney.

Seventh Grade Class Officers

During this first year of Junior High, the seventh grade was headed by J. C. Womack, president; Jim Vervaras, vice-president; Mary Christensen, secretary, and Cynthia Young, treasurer. These officers were in turn advised by Mrs. Barbara Grootenhuis, Miss Waverly Linzie, and Mr. Arlen Schroeder.

The year's highlights included a dance in February, the annual class party April 17, and the annual spelling contest. A trophy was presented to the winner of the contest.

Senior High Student Council

AT DESK: B. Harrison, president; J. Schultz, secretary.
ROW ONE: Y. Lonteen, J. Strickler, M. A. Niecko, L. Court, J. Gray, N. Robinson, Mr. Williams.
ROW TWO: B. Wall, R. Reed, B. Bradford, M. Arnold, P. Paskett, D. Lane, B. Vincent.
ROW THREE: P. Frye, J. Johnson, S. Zimmerman, B. Holland, M. Gray, B. Johnson.

The council, with Mr. Williams as advisor, successfully completed many projects during the year. They sponsored the half-time activities at the annual Homecoming Game, which was held October 17, and made arrangements for the after-game dance. The next project on the agenda was the annual Education Open House, November 11. A new project for the council this year was College Night, December 2, which enabled the juniors and seniors to become acquainted with various colleges. The annual Christmas Formal, "Christmas Fantasy," was held December 13. Through the efforts of the council members, books were collected and sent to the Far East for the use of Asian students.

Glee Club

Junior

This year's Choir and Glee Club activities were varied and many. Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Jane Glathart, they participated in many outstanding chapel programs for the enjoyment of both the faculty and the student body. The Choir and Glee Club alternated chapels and combined their efforts for special services such as the Christmas and Easter chapels. Besides participating in these chapel programs, they combined their singing abilities to present two concerts one at Christmas and a Spring Concert, March 21. Along with this, the Glee Club sang for Education Week Open House and the Choir sang for Baccalaureate.

This year, the musical groups and music classes were fortunate enough to be able to do their singing in a new music room. This new room is equipped with many conveniences; chairs, built-in robe cabinets, a file, an office for Mrs. Glathart, practice rooms, storage rooms, risers, and its own fire escape. All this added to the pride with which these groups performed for the members of the school and the townspeople.

Senior Choir

Choir

Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Jane Glathart, the newly-organized Junior High Choir provided the Junior High students and the people of Albion with many entertaining performances. Among these were singing for the Junior High chapel services, presenting a concert with the Junior Band April 16, and participating in the Junior High Achievement Day exercises.

The group is composed of eighth and ninth grades and is a substitute for the choirs and glee clubs which were formerly held after school.

The choir's officers were as follows: President, Lloyd Lack; secretary, Diane Yokum; treasurer, Larry Domingo; librarians, Vicki Hetner and Catherine Cascarelli; robe committee, Brenda Sims and Marilyn Zeluff.

The splendor of the girls on the float, as it entered the field, dazzled the crowd . . . .

. . . . and, of course, the queens and their court reigned over the Homecoming Dance.

AHS class of '35 holds reunion

The 50th class reunion of the Albion High School Class of 1935 was held June 22 at the Elks Lodge. Hiram Herrick, Leroy Face and Elaine Osmun welcomed the guests during the social hour.

There were favors for the women and boutonniers for the men, a red rose, the class flower. After a group picture was taken. Lloyd Boldt of Ocala, Fla. gave the invocation preceeding the buffet dinner. The tables were decorated with the class colors of blue and white candles and flowers. Lloyd Ray read several letters from class members who were unable too attend. Of the 130 graduates in 1935, 51 were at the reunion, with 37 spouses and friends. Forty-four members are deceased.

Nicholas Jacobs, senior class president, was master of ceremonies. Frederick Koon gave the welcome address and Nicholas Jacobs introduced the guest of honor, class advisor Ernest D. Gray. The group observed a moment of silent prayer for the departed class members.

Music for the evening was provided from taped songs of the '30s. Visiting completed the evenings event and plans were discussed for a 55th reunion.

The reunion committee consisted of Lucille (Robinson) Carrier, Roselyn (Koon) Walsh, Elaine Osmun, Robert Baker, Lloyd Ray, Hiram Herrick, Leroy Face, Frederick Koon and Nicholas Jacobs.

Classmates and spouses attended from Albion, Battle Creek, Bellaire, Charlotte, Concord, Dearborn, Drayton Plains, Flint, Grand Rapids, Hastings, Jackson, Livonia, Marshll, Muskegon, Parma and Saline.

Others were also present from Alabama, Claifornia, Florida, Ohio and Oklahoma.
